Champagne

Moët & Chandon Impérial Brut

Brut Impérial is the house style of Moët & Chandon, a house with a history of 150 years. The blend is created from over 100 different wines including roughly 30% reserve wine from previous vintages. The assemblage then undergoes the second fermentation in the bottle. This exceptional champagne has aromas of white flowers, brioche and fresh nuts. The palate is dry with a keen energy and a hint of citrus fruits, laced with gooseberry nuances. The finish is crisp and refreshing.

White

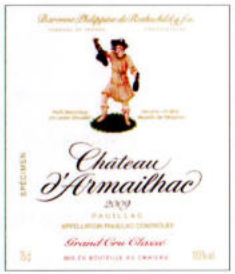
Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc 2023
Marlborough, New Zealand

Cloudy Bay was established in 1985 by Cape Mantelle founder David Hohnen and winemaker Kevin Judd. Little did they know that it would play a significant role in putting New Zealand on the global wine map. Today, it shares the same owners as Dom Pérignon and has become synonymous with luxury. The 2023 has a nose of gooseberries, citrus, passion fruit and elderflower. The palate is medium-bodied, herbaceous, elegant with citrus notes and full of vibrancy with a crisp finish.

Domaine Roux Pere et Fils Rully Les Agnières 2023
Burgundy, France

Founded in 1885, Domaine Roux Père et Fils is a family estate. Known for its meticulous vineyard work and traditional winemaking, the domaine expresses the unique terroirs of the Côte d'Or and Côte Chalonnaise. The 2023 Rully 'Les Agnières' is a beautifully fresh and lively white Burgundy which opens with aromas of lemon zest and acacia blossom on the nose. The palate is crisp and elegant with layers of stone fruit and a chalky minerality that lingers on the finish.

Red



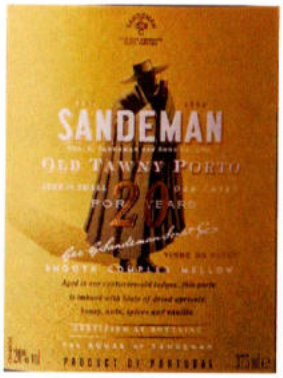
Château d'Armailhac 2009
Pauillac, France

Château d'Armailhac, a fifth growth in the 1855 Classification, has belonged to the Rothschild family since 1933. Its gravelly vineyards neighbour Château Mouton Rothschild and are planted with cabernet sauvignon, merlot, cabernet franc and petit verdot. The 2009 offers aromas of cassis, blackberry and violet, layered with cedar and cocoa. The palate is full and polished, showing ripe black fruit, fine tannins and a long, harmonious finish.

Bella's Garden Shiraz Two Hands Wines 2021
Barossa Valley, Australia

Founded in 1999, Two Hands Wines showcases the diversity of Australian shiraz through site-specific expressions. Bella's Garden hails from the Barossa Valley, known for its ancient soils and bold, structured reds. The 2021 brims with blackberry, plum and dark cherry aromas, layered with notes of anise and cedar. The palate is plush yet poised with ripe fruit framed by silky tannins and a fine thread of acidity, leading to a long and elegant finish.

Port



Sandeman 20 Years Old Tawny Port
Douro Valley, Portugal

Named after its founder, the George Sandeman & Co. brand has been burned into wine casks since 1805 and was registered as a trademark in 1877, making it one of the oldest trademarks.
The age statement on the label alludes to the average age of the blend. Rich yet elegant aromas of dried apricots, honey, nuts, spices and vanilla dominate. The palate is lusciously sweet with an endless complexity that unfolds smoothly, developing and evolving in the mouth.

Sommelier's choice

Sometimes we bring on board special wines that aren't on our list. Ask your cabin crew about today's sommelier's choice.
